The reservation confirmation email is not sent automatically. Please wait for a while as we will send it to you after we finish putting the materials on hold.

If you do not receive a reservation confirmation email within a few days (except on weekends and holidays), there is a possibility that the email is sent to the spam folder, so please check it and cancel the spam setting.

Please note that some historical materials and books may not be available due to being on loan or other reasons. Whether you can use the materials or not will be notified by a confirmation email.

If you would like to use more that 10 items at a time, please make another reservation from the reservation form.
